To Miss Garland, whose thoughts, actions and deeds have been daily testimonials to our class of 1958, we affectionately dedicate this volume of "The Aneid."

No more fitting tribute can be paid you, Miss Garland, than to say that by your works, by your increasing efforts, and by your life, you are the vanguard of our progress.

Truly, we are proud of you, and this appreciation of the students you have known so well is offered as a glad recognition to the resplendent victories you have achieved.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1958, upon leaving our Alma Mater, do bequeath this, our last will and testament.

To the O.R. , we leave our tired feet, chapped hands and aching back.

To the Juniors, we leave our black bands in hope you will act like dignified Seniors as we did.

To the Freshmen, we leave plenty of time off duty to do their socializing.

I, Mary Goodbar, will my ability to hold and love one man to Brenda DiGrassi.

I, Barbara Goins, leave my ability to run all over the country after a barefoot boy to anyone who thinks they can keep up with me.

I, Violet Sweet, will my calm, cool and collected ways to anyone who is in need of them.

I, Betty Roberts, will my ability to get a crush on one man and keep it to Sue Gay in hopes she has better luck than I did.

I, Mary Brooks, will my ability to obtain a record player and buy a record every month to someone who can afford it. I never could.

I, Jenny Fox, will my love for brown eyes and dark hair to those girls who love frosty blondes.

I, Gay Owens, will my brown sweater to anyone who thinks they can get by with wearing it - I never could!

I, Jenny Bond, leave all the boys to the oncoming classes.

I, Karen Bostic, will my ability to get into trouble to anyone who can outdo me.

I, Delberta Ruckman, will my ability to sleep until 6:30 a.m., have breakfast, and get to work by 6:50 a.m. to anyone who thinks they can do it.

I, Eliza Goodbar, will my ability to flirt with the men to anyone who has what it takes.

I, Lucy Williams, will my love for the country to those city girls who have telephones.

I, Mildred Wilson, will my red teddy bear to Elaine Leisher since I don't need him any longer.

I, Peggy Meads, will - No! I'm taking it all with me.

I, Connie Houchins, leave to anyone capable, my ability to be mischievous and still remain innocent.

I, Ellen Crawford, will my quiet, soft bedroom shoes to Sandra Pivont for future use in hopes she won't make so much noise.

I, Delores Dilly, leave my ability to argue, to Sarah Payne and hope she profits by it. I sure haven't.

I, Ethel Gill, leave my dance, "The Charleston," to anyone who thinks they can do it.

I, Mary Gall, will my three inch heels to Joyce Shaver in hopes she will wear them.

Prophecy

A reunion of the Class of 1958 of the Chesapeake and Ohio School of Nursing was held last night at "Pig Run Inn" owned and operated by Lucy and Bob.

It was a lovely evening, with a turnout of 19 graduates, and husbands and 51 children.

The first to arrive at the inn was Mildred with her husband Ray and four lovely children. Mildred is now the Pediatric Supervisor at C&O Hospital.

Virginia Bond arrived with her husband, a doctor, whom she met while working as Operating Room Supervisor at Richmond Memorial Hospital. (By the way this is Jenny's third husband.)

Who do you think flew all the way from California just to be with us? Yes, you're right, Barbara Goins Williams and her husband, Bill. Barb is now head nurse on the Psychiatric ward at Letterman's Army Hospital. (By the way they have two sets of twins plus three other children.)

Yes, Delberta Ruckman finally married Bud (no surprise to us). They have a large chicken farm in Frost, W. Va. Delberta is Superintendent of the Frost General Hospital.

Ellen Crawford arrived slim and chic in her 1962 red, Ford Convertible. Ellen is supervisor of 4th floor of Children's Hospital, Richmond, Va. Keep up the good work, Ellen. The next step will be a gold Cadillac.

Upon arriving, Connie Houchins quickly shed her shoes, and honored us with the Charleston. Connie is still working with "Ringling Brothers" Circus in Florida. She plans to leave the Circus soon and join her husband, John, in Selba, South Dakota.

Violet Sweet slipped quietly to the back table with her husband, Earl. They have just returned from Italy, where they spent three months in the glass house that Earl designed.

As we looked around, in strolled the former Mary Goodbar with her husband, Tommy, and three little towheads. Mary looked as gay as she did on her wedding day. Tommy has re-enlisted in the Air Force for the third time. Mary has given up Nursing to be with her children, and to tour the country with Tommy. (How does it feel to be a Colonel's wife, Mary?)

After talking to Mary and Tommy for a few minutes, who appears but Mary Brooks with her husband, Roy. She told us Roy has been out of the Navy for a year now and after receiving her degree in Nursing Education, they will reside in Orlando, Fla., where Roy is employed in deep sea fishing and Mary will teach in a hospital there. (No children as yet.)

Who just drove up in the black and white Ford with a gold stripe? It couldn't be Janey Goodbar -- Yes, Air Force uniform and all, Captain at that. She tells us that she is stationed in Indiana and from the looks of that three carat diamond she seems to be doing all right for herself. (Couldn't be you know who, could it, Janey?)

Well, here come Karen and Dempsey and little papoose. You'll never believe it, but Karen drove here tonight. These two must have C&O in their blood. Oh, well, it sure helps with that $50,000 home out on the river.

Betty Roberts arrived with her "old flame." Yes, she finally took the step. Betty was chosen the best dressed nurse 1963. She has toured many places and just returned from Iran after having spent two years there as an Industrial nurse, for the American, Iran Oil Company. She says she likes it fine and from the looks of the gentleman on her arm I think I would enjoy it too.

As we look around, we see Mary Gall and her husband, Frank. They have just arrived from South America, where Mary is doing missionary work and Frank is employed with the Oil Company. How are the twins, Mary? They surely are sweet.

In struts Ethel Gill in a green chemise (still in style) with a huge bow in the back. Ethel is still single but by the process of elimination, it won't be long.

Slowly this class becomes a class again. Here come Gay Carron Owen and her husband, Morgan. Gay is home to stay after five years in California (Morgan decided he didn't like the Navy after eight years' duty). Gay will replace Miss Ricks as Educational Director at C&O. Good luck, Gay, "remember our Anatomy Classes." Don't be too hard on the girls.

This looks like a night for the Air Force. Here comes Peggy Meads wearing what every Air Force Nurse wears, and she wears it with dignity. You've really gone places since we've seen you last, from a graduate to a major. Peggy remains aloof when asked about her romantic life, but say, Peggy, where is Major Brougham?

Well, look who just strolled in looking like a fashion model. Geneva Fox just came in especially for the reunion from her many duties as instructor at Duke University. Gen-ny, who is your current flame? Bob, Dick, Jack, Keith, or did you find someone else?

Well, it looks like everybody is present and accounted for, but wait just a minute here comes Dilley arguing with the girls as to which is the best road to Pig Road Inn. Dilley just blew in from Reno after receiving her divorce from a millionaire whom she met during her two years' stay in Iran. Incidentally, this poor man is a garbage collector now. Nice work, Delores.

As our reunion draws to a close we wish to thank Bob and Lucy for the use of their Inn this evening. We hope that we can repeat this evening again in ten years.

Class History

It was a bright Sunday afternoon (to most of us) of September 18, 1955, that thirty-four eager (to go home) girls arrived at the C&O Nurses' Home in Clifton Forge. We were escorted by families and friends and loaded down with luggage.

We were greeted at the door by Miss Reynolds, Miss Ricks, and Mrs. Dondley, who held out their hands and when we held out ours, they said, "Oh, no, we want the tuition, the handshaking comes later." So with our money gone, we had our names pinned on and were lined up in one confused line. Sure enough the handshaking started.

At the end of the reception and the bidding of good-bye to our beloved parents, the unpacking started and we had supper.

Along about bedtime, we began to feel deserted, most of us were ready to go home ... however, we survived and finally came the morning and that fabulous trip to Natural Bridge, W & L, and VMI (sigh). That night we had a pajama party and it was party, party all week. They were fattening us up for the "Big Kill."

In the second week, the fun began. We were given an armful of books and measured for uniforms and sweaters.

We were told to study two hours a night, and, if we were good, we could see a movie once in a while. Believe it or not, but we did.

Those first "after hours" visits with the older students with their tales, left us horrified, and Mrs. Dondley's much feared footsteps are things we will never forget. Oh, yes, I can't leave out the good smell of popcorn during study hour and our getting caught every time we went to the water fountain (caught by the "Old Boogie Man" herself). Yes, the life of a "probie" is a wearisome road. You never know but what tomorrow's test may be your last.

That first Holly Ball at the Greenbrier Hotel at White Sulphur Springs and also our first formal here was the highlight of three months of hard labor, but it was worth it. Then came basketball and Glee Club which were good diversions from our studies.

Then came that wonderful and long awaited day on March 18, when twenty-four hopeful girls received their caps. Now we were full-fledged students but classes still didn't end. The first of June, classes did end and vacations and affiliations began. It was a sad day when the first six left for Spring Grove State Hospital in Maryland. The time seemed to fly by as we entered our Junior year.

You would think at this point history would take a rest, but for us it was just the beginning. It was in November of that year that we became the first class to wear the "Junior Stripes." Then in February 1957 we sent twelve "guinea pigs" to "The Medical College of Virginia" in Richmond to get their basic knowledge in obstetrics and pediatrics.

Then came September of 1957 when we donned our black bands and became dignified Seniors. We felt as if we were getting somewhere at last.

In December of 1957 came the long awaited Holly Ball again. Connie Houchins was crowned queen and we really had a grand time.

At last came March when the last group returned from Richmond and the class was together again. We will never forget our little class reunion on the Sunday night after they came back.

We started classes but this time we only had two courses left besides those terrible comprehensives.

And now we close this chapter of our ever growing book of knowledge and experiences. Some have already married and some plan to further their education. In whatever you do, we wish you the best of luck and a world of happiness. We hope that the history of our class will not end here but will continue on through the coming years.

With this history, we leave but a few of our many memories but we hope this will serve the purpose of reminding you of us and our many thanks.

Our Cap

That cap the nurse on duty wears
 Is costlier than the bonnets gay
 Worn by the wives of millionaires regardless of the price they pay.
 'Tis something that she herself can make,
 A bit of linen, trimmed and turned
 The right to it (for mercy's sake)
 Was with three years of training earned.

That uniform of spotless white
 Was costlier than a lady's gown,
 'Twas bought with care by day and night
 For those with illness stricken down.
 The royal robes show royal birth
 But every nurse's simple pin
 Is emblematic of her worth;
 A symbol she has toiled to win.

Oh gracious spirit, love imbued,
 That can such tender care accord,
 Perhaps it is, that gratitude
 Must always be your best reward.
 Now out of gratitude appears
 This tribute, done in simple verse
 Upon the dedicated years
 Of all who choose to be a nurse.

THE GLADYS INN

The Story of Our Hospital

In 1897 a committee from the employees of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway met with Mr. George W. Stevens, who at that time was General Manager of the Railway Company, for the purpose of forming a mutual hospital association. Its effort was primarily directed towards taking care of catastrophic injuries and illnesses. There is reason to believe that Mr. Stevens was one of the early initiators of this idea.

Clifton Forge, due to its geographical location as it related to the Railway Company, was selected as a location for the first hospital of this Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Employees' Hospital Association movement. The old "Gladys Inn" Hotel was located on the present site and this old hotel was turned over to the employees for operation as a hospital. This renovated building was put into hospital operation on December 1, 1897, with a bed capacity for about fifty patients.

The professional staff consisted of one surgeon, Dr. J. C. Wysor, who was the father of Dr. Frank Wysor of the hospital's present staff. The Superintendent of Nurses was Miss M. H. Richardson. Later she was succeeded by Mrs. Woodyard, Mrs. Mary Berryman and Mrs. Fushia Marshbank. One house doctor and five nurses were employed. Dr. Charles Brock was Chief Surgeon of the railroad. In 1914 Dr. W. T. Oppenheimer succeeded Dr. Brock as Chief Surgeon. The Clifton Forge hospital had become a very busy institution and the old "Gladys Inn" structure was not adequate for its needs. Through the influence of Mr. George Stevens, who was then president of the railroad, the old "Gladys Inn" was demolished and a new modern hospital constructed. The new facility was opened with appropriate ceremonies on April 2, 1917. It was well equipped and adequate for its day. Dr. B. B. Wheeler was appointed Surgeon in Charge. Dr. Wheeler had associated with him, Dr. E. D. Wells, Otolaryngologist, and Dr. J. N. Williams in the Department of Roentgenology and Supervisor of Laboratories.

The School of Nursing was organized in 1916 with Miss E. W. Bauer as Superintendent.

In September, 1920, Dr. J. M. Emmett succeeded Dr. Wheeler as Surgeon in Charge of the hospital in Clifton Forge. Dr. Emmett has continued in this position since his initial appointment. In 1919 there were three nurses graduated from the School of Nursing. Dr. G. S. Hartley had been appointed by Dr. Wheeler as internist and he continued on with the hospital's operation.

Miss Maude Dauherty became Superintendent of the hospital and Superintendent of Nurses in 1925. Miss Dauherty resigned in 1932 and she was replaced by Miss Pearl Pope. In the year 1934, the School of Nursing was discontinued because it was felt that there was a superfluous number of nurses being graduated and a demand for their services did not appear to exist.

On May 12, 1936, a further addition was made to the Chesapeake and Ohio Hospital by the creation of the west wing, giving the hospital fifty additional beds. The primary building was renovated and redecorated. Further modern facilities for the care of patients were installed.

In 1937 the school of Nursing was re-opened under the direction of Miss Pearl Pope as Superintendent. In 1914 a new and modern nurses' home was constructed. This nurses' home had a capacity for the care of about seventy-five individuals. In the same year Miss Clyde Cox succeeded Miss Pope as Superintendent of Nurses and Miss Louise Reynolds was appointed Superintendent of the Hospital. In 1943 Miss Cox resigned to enter the armed forces and she was succeeded as Superintendent of Nurses by Miss Gertrude Thompson. In 1944 Miss Thompson resigned to enter the armed forces and her successor was Miss Anna Wood. About this time the dual positions of Hospital Superintendent and Superintendent of Nurses were combined, Miss Louise Reynolds being appointed to take over the two responsibilities. Miss Kyle Carson became Nursing Instructor in 1945. Miss Carson resigned because of ill health. Miss Grace M. Ricks was then made Associate Director of Nurses and assumed directly the responsibilities of the School of Nursing. With the growth of the school other faculty members have been added. The present members of the School of Nursing faculty include: Mrs. Peggy L. Ellis, Nursing Arts Instructor; Miss Emma E. Garland, Clinical Instructor, Medical and Surgical Nursing; Mrs. Cassie S. Black, Surgical Supervisor; Miss Louise Workman, Medical Supervisor; Mrs. Eleanor Clark, Assistant Nursing Arts Instructor; Miss Zella Pitzer, Operating Room Supervisor; Mrs. Lydia Woods, Evening Supervisor; and Miss Eva Bussard, Night Supervisor.

In the early part of 1954, the Railway Company appropriated funds aggregating about one million dollars for the construction of a new wing to the hospital. This new wing, with its additional facilities, was planned to take care of seventy-five additional patients, giving the hospital an aggregate bed space for 225 patients. This appropriation was supported by Mr. Walter Tuohy, President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The appropriation included funds for a complete renovation of the old building and added facilities to bring the hospital up to a completely modern plant. This new wing was opened on May 12, 1955, with a dedication address by Mr. Walter Tuohy.

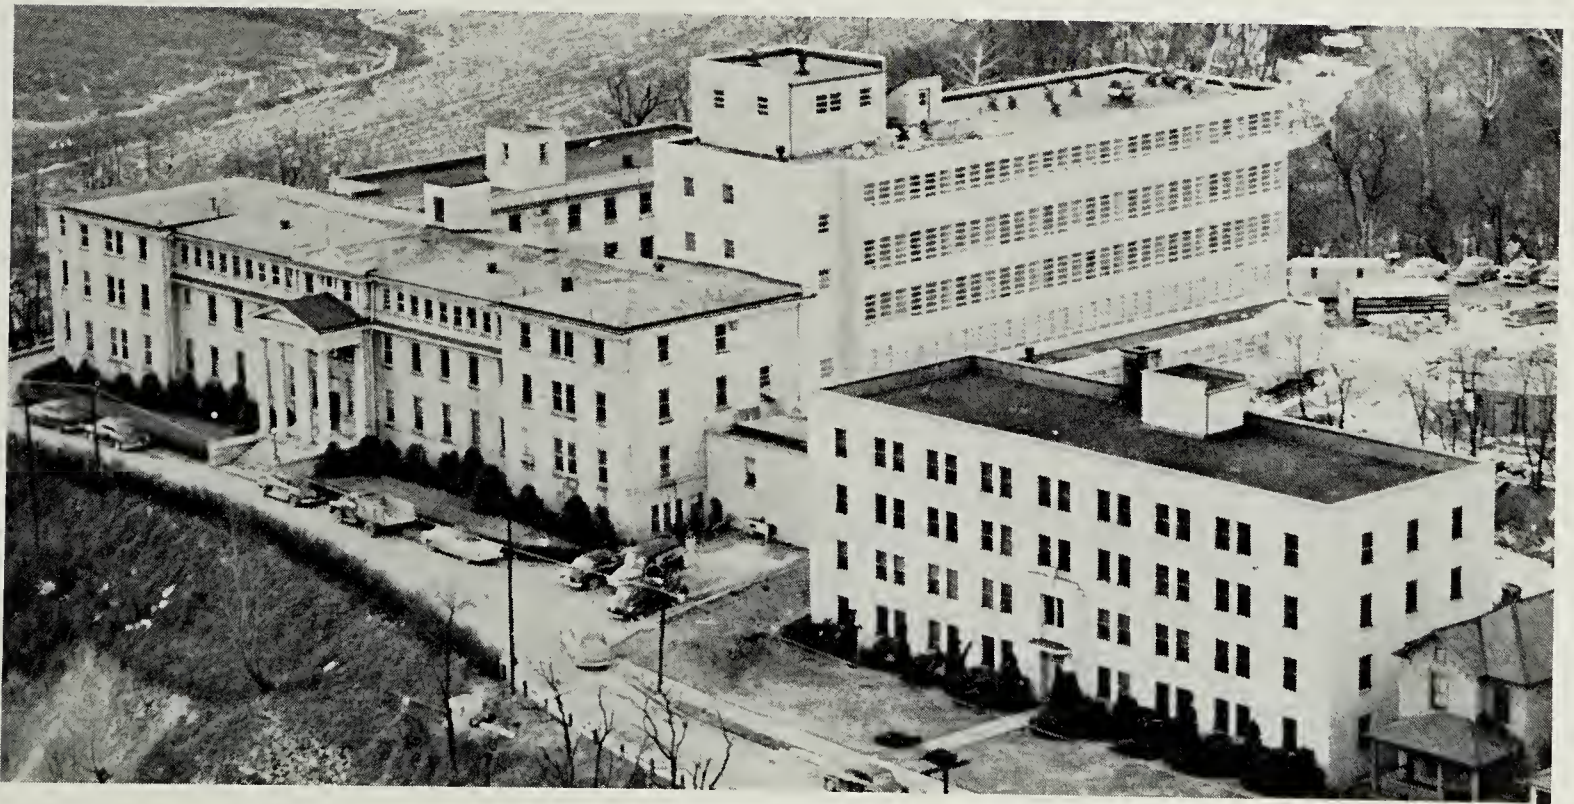

Addition of West Wing in 1936

The present professional personnel of the hospital includes: Dr. J. M. Emmett, Chief Surgeon and Chairman of the Department of Surgery; Dr. R. P. Hawkins, Assistant Chief Surgeon in charge of the Department of Orthopedic Surgery; Dr. J. D. Adams, Associate Surgeon; Dr. Armistead D. Williams, Chairman of the Department of Internal Medicine; Dr. Allan E. LeHew, Associate in the Department of Internal Medicine; Dr. William P. Gilmer, Director of the Department of Roentgenology; Dr. George Chucker, Associate in the Department of Roentgenology; Dr. Frank Wysor, Ophthalmologist; Dr. Courtney Edmond, Otolaryngologist; Dr. Murdo MacKay, Otolaryngologist; Dr. Thomas N. Warren, Director of the Department of Pathology and Clinical Laboratories; Dr. John F. Jonas, Director of the Department of Anesthesiology; Dr. Maurice M. Fliess, Pediatrician; Dr. Walter E. Vermilya, Obstetrician; Dr. C. W. Whitmore, Dermatologist; Dr. Warren L. Morman, Jr., Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery; Dr. Raymond L. Claterbaugh, Dr. German S. Hartley, and Dr. Louis A. Houff, visiting physicians.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Hospital is approved by the Virginia Hospital Association and the Joint Commission for the Accreditation of Hospitals. In 1957 the hospital admitted 7,843 patients and treated 17,985 out-patients.
